City Power & Light Company(KCPL). As stated in the ISS Report:

"At this time, Western's deal is superior. (KCPL) shareholders are being asked to approve the KCPL/UCU transaction despite the fact that there is an offer on the table from a larger, financially stronger company (Western

Independent Shareholder Services (ISS), one of the most widely followed independent organizations specializing in shareholder voting analysis, has recommended a VOTE AGAINST the proposed merger of UtiliCorp (UCU) and Kansas

Resources) that is worth approximately 20 percent more."*

"Our recommendation is grounded in the belief that it is the duty of the (KCPL) board to maximize value for KCPL shareholders and to fairly consider all offers, including those that are unsolicited."

Here's what ISS had to say about the recent rate agreement between Western Resources and the Kansas Corporation Commission staff:

"These numbers are consistent with the rate decreases projected in Western's proxy materials."

WESTERN RESOURCES' OFFER
Dividend per KCPL share: $2.00 - $2.35

Price per KCPL share: $31.00

We believe when KCPL's excuses are stripped away, all that's left is KCPL executives' desire for the big bonuses UtiliCorp's proposal is offering them.

THE CHOICE IS CLEAR. CHOOSE WESTERN RESOURCES. MAKE YOUR LAST VOTE COUNT. Vote AGAINST the Proposed Merger with UtiliCorp on the GOLD Proxy Card.

WESTERN UNION MAILGRAM

Addressee

August 2, 1996

Dear KCPL Shareowner:

I am delighted to report a major victory for KCPL shareowners.

Today, the Federal Court in Kansas City, Missouri, ruled against KCPL's attempt to reduce the vote required for approval of the proposed UtiliCorp transaction. In its decision, the Court found that this attempt by KCPL resulted in "the destruction of the KCPL shareholders' right to vote and their appraisal rights."

After facing certain defeat of the UtiliCorp proposal at their annual meeting, KCPL withdrew that proposal at the last minute and attempted to restructure the transaction to avoid the two-thirds voting requirement for mergers that exists for the protection of shareowners. Under their now discredited structure, the current UtiliCorp proposal could have been approved by a small minority of KCPL's outstanding shares. At the same time, KCPL tried to eliminate your appraisal rights to seek fair value under Missouri law. The court's decision restores to KCPL's shareowners these fundamental rights.

KCPL is still trying to take away your rights! Now more than ever, we believe it is extremely important that you send a message to KCPL's Board and management that you are tired of their ignoring your financial interests. You can send that message by voting AGAINST the UtiliCorp proposal today.

August 1, 1996

Addressee

Dear Addressee,

John Hayes forwarded to me your letter concerning our offer to merge with Kansas City Power & Light Company. We appreciate your comments, especially in the perspective as a retiree from KCPL.

In addressing your first question concerning the impact on retired KCPL employees, I would encourage you to look at our track record in our 1992 merger with KGE. In that merger, we indicated that retirees would not be adversely impacted and the record reflects the fact that has been the That is our plan as well with regard to KCPL retirees.

With regard to the headquarters of the company, we have indicated that KCPL will remain headquartered in Kansas City and we will also move the headquarters of one of our unregulated subsidiaries to Kansas City which will enable us to create more jobs and growth opportunities for KCPL employees. Because of our long history in Topeka, our plan would be to continue to have the headquarters of Western Resources in Topeka.

I hope you have had an opportunity to review the information that has $\ensuremath{\mathsf{I}}$ been sent to you. We believe we have an offer that is financially superior and will be beneficial to shareowners, employees, customers and the communities that we serve.

> Sincerely, Carl M. Koupal, Jr. Executive Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer
