WESTERN RESOURCES COMMENTS ON LETTER TO SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

TOPEKA, Kansas, May 14, 1996 -- Western Resources today issued the following statement based upon conversations with the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission:

"On May 6, 1996, Western Resources disclosed that it filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission a letter detailing statements made by Kansas City Power & Light Company that Western Resources believes are misleading and requesting that the SEC investigate this matter and take appropriate corrective actions. Western Resources' letter to the SEC, and the disclosure of such letter, should not be viewed as any official finding by the SEC or a court of law of securities law violations, nor should it be viewed as indicating whether or not any investigation has been or will be initiated. It is the understanding of Western Resources that the existence of any investigation by the SEC is confidential and that it is the policy of the SEC not to comment on such matters."

Western Resources (NYSE:WR) is a diversified energy company.
